Old Business:

Discussion of OSA Academy Programs was discussed, but nothing was voted on. Brandon would like information out to everyone by next Friday. Discussion of the 8v8 format in the Under 10 age group. Currently the ODL plays in the 8v8 format. Under 9 and Under 10's will play with offside. Allowing the teams to play in four tournaments a year.

New Business:

Sid brought up the USYS 2007 workshop in St. Louis. He was asking who would be going to this event. Brandon asked that everyone try to attend this years event, but understood if anyone could not.

2007 Club / Country Tournaments discussion. Motion by Tom Wedding and 2nd by Mickey Weatherly to approve all 2007 tournaments pending the approval of FCSA and GCSA approvals. Office Staff would notify all tournaments directors of their tournaments approval.

OSA Hall of Fame discussion- Sid did report that we do have candidates for this year's induction.

Scott Hughes will be putting a committee together that would allow the competitive teams to play 8v8. This committee will be chaired by Scott Hughes, and will report to the Youth Board on who he has on the committee. This committee will make a recommendation, and Scott Hughes will present to the Youth Board.

Bylaw changes discussed to include changing or add 2 more board positions on the Youth Board. Discussion was mainly around Risk Management and 2nd Vice President Position.

OSA 2007 Workshop discussion and schedules was presented to the Youth Board by Sid. These are draft only, and he asked us to review them. The workshop will be held January 12, 13, 14, 2007.

Motion to adjourn at 7:55pm

Respectfully submitted,

Tom Wedding
OSA Secretary / Registrar
