

CONFLICT OF INTEREST Policy and Statement

Oklahoma Soccer Association recognizes that to fulfill its responsibilities to its members and to the public at large, it is dependent upon the dedication of the Board of Directors, its officers, employees and staff, all members of committees, all other representatives, and its volunteers. Because one aspect of determining qualifications of each of these individuals is the avoidance of conflicts of interest, the following policy has been adopted.

A conflict of interest is defined as any relationship in which a person receives compensation from any individual or entity that does business with and has an interest in the policies, decisions or operations of the Oklahoma Soccer Association that could influence or perceive to influence the person's objectivity in any decision-making process involving policies, decisions or operations.

In general, the Oklahoma Soccer Association expects every person to be constantly aware of the dangers inherent in situations that give rise to conflict of personal interests with those of the Oklahoma Soccer Association. Although complete avoidance of all conflicts of interest is not always possible, the Oklahoma Soccer Association expects the kind of loyalty and ethical consciousness that will motivate an individual to recognize situations and circumstances that could produce a conflict. All individuals should avoid any actions that might result in or create the appearance of:

- using association with the Oklahoma Soccer Association for private gain.
- granting by the Oklahoma Soccer Association of unwarranted preferential treatment to any person or organization.
- misusing Oklahoma Soccer Associations confidential information for financial or personal gain.
- losing Oklahoma Soccer Associations independence or impartiality.
- adversely affecting public confidence in the integrity or the reputation of the Oklahoma Soccer Association.
- endangering life, health or safety.

Consequently, all shall refrain from engaging in any transaction with the Oklahoma Soccer Association in any situation in which such individual has a duty to protect Oklahoma Soccer Associations interest therein and a simultaneous opportunity to realize a personal gain or benefit. Additionally, no person shall accept or engage in any activity, business or employment that will conflict with Oklahoma Soccer Associations interest or diminish the ability of the individual to render to the Oklahoma Soccer Association full, loyal and undivided service.

Finally, participants shall always avoid not only actual conflicts of interest but also the appearance of a conflict of interest. The appearance of a conflict can be as damaging as an actual conflict. Everyone is encouraged to develop and maintain an attitude of awareness of those situations in which an appearance of conflict might arise.

If a conflict of interest should arise, every individual has the responsibility to take necessary action to inform the Board of Directors about the conflict, and to avoid any participation in decision making regarding the action. When there is a doubt whether a conflict of interest exists, the matter shall be resolved by the Board of Directors. Should any member of the Board be in this circumstance, he or she shall excuse himself or herself from the decision and report on doing so to the President.
